

A colorful illustration of Frau Holle, a German folk figure. She is depicted as an elderly woman with a white bonnet and a white dress with a red apron, smiling and waving from a cloud. Below her, a large white banner with a purple border contains the text 'FRAU HOLLE' in bold, yellow, 3D-style letters. The banner is set against a blue sky with white snowflakes. Below the banner, a stone archway with wooden doors is shown. A hand reaches out from the top of the arch, and a young girl in a blue dress and white apron stands in the center, waving and surrounded by a bright, sparkling light. The background shows a snowy village with houses and trees.
